DeWitt District Library

Payments by Credit Card Policy

For the convenience of its patrons, the DeWitt District Library provides the option of paying library bills and fines via credit/debit card.

The Library authorizes the payment of the following fees by a financial transaction device (meaning a credit or debit card):

1. Late Fines and Fees
2. Payment for lost or damaged material
3. Interlibrary loan fees and other circulation transactions
4. Donations.

The Library accepts American Express, Visa, MasterCard, and Discover cards.

The Library is subject to compliance with all laws, statutes, and reasonable terms and conditions associated with accepting these credit cards. The Library does not charge a fee for credit card use. Payments are encrypted to protect patron financial information.

Credit card payments will not be accepted by telephone, mail or e-mail.

Adopted by the Dewitt District Library Board on May 14, 2015
