DeWitt Barbecue Saturday

DeWITT—The DeWitt school library will benefit from the second annual Parent-Teacher Association carnival and outdoor chicken barbecue Saturday at the junior high school on Washington Street.

The carnival will include games with an automobile among prizes.

The activities will start at 2 p.m. with the barbecue to get under way at 5 p.m. There will be 40 feet of barbecue pits and 30 chefs furnished by the Michigan Poultry Association. George Scott and Dale Farhat will be in charge.

All proceeds from the events will go to the school library.

'MUSIC LADY' — Mrs. Wilma Reed (standing) has been teaching piano in DeWitt since 1930, now has several second generation students. Here, she instructs Rebecca Bouts. She's been pianist for Methodist and Community Junior Church choirs, presently is organist at Community Church.
