

Mary Braska

Mary L. (Pierce) Braska, 44, of DeWitt, born April 11, 1951 went to be with the Lord March 21, 1996 after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

Mary Braska

God looked around His garden and found an empty space, He looked down upon earth and saw your tired face, He put His arm around you and lifted you to rest, God's garden must be beautiful for He only takes the best. He knew that you were weary and He knew you were in pain, He knew that you would never be well on earth again. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were too hard to climb so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, Peace be thine.

Her life here on earth was one that was filled with her passion of watching her children grow and excel. She especially enjoyed watching her sons playing football and cruising in her '57 Chevy. Mary will be sadly missed but not forgotten.

Mary leaves behind her loving husband Joe; eight children, Sheila, Lisa, Joe, John, Jeff, James, Justin and Jeremy; her mother Beatrice Pierce of Laingsburg; sisters Shirley (Roger) Sickles of Perry, Joanne (George) Abel of Washington; brothers Howard (Sandy) Pierce and Richard Pierce, both of Laingsburg and one grandson Andrew.

She was preceded in death by her father, Clarence Pierce, and one sister Marjorie Pierce.

The family wishes to express their grateful thanks to all those who gave their prayers and actions through this trying time.

The Funeral Mass was celebrated at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church in East Lansing with interment following in Rose Cemetery in Bath. Rev. Lawrence R. Delaney officiated.

Memorials may be made to the Braska Children Trust Fund c/o The Gorsline-Runciman Co., DeWitt Chapel or the American Cancer Society.

TWO M. DROWN IN ACCIDENT FRIDAY

Driver Falls Asleep At Wheel

Henry Raby and George Brink Of Dewitt Victims Of Pathetic
Mishap

Residents of St. Johns were extremely agitated Friday morning when news of one of the most pathetic accidents to happen in this county was reported to the local authorities. About four o'clock a Ford touring car driven by George E. Brink of Dewitt went into the dredge ditch three miles north of the city, just a short distance from Livingston's corners.

Two members of the party were drowned in about three feet of water. The two boys in the car escaped uninjured. The car was raised from the ditch and brought to this city by the Owl garage wrecker. The damage to the car was not serious. The windshield was destroyed and the fender and running board and rear wheel on the left side of the car were broken.

George E. Brink, Henry C. Raby, John Brink, 12 years, and Porter Palmer, 11 years, left Dewitt at two o'clock Tuesday morning on a herrying and fishing trip. They arrived at St. Helena, 3rd lake, where they remained Wednesday and Thursday. The party left for the return trip home Thursday afternoon between three and four o'clock.

On the trip home, according to the story told by Porter Palmer, they ran off the road near Forest Hill, striking a telephone pole. The fender was broken loose from the running board of the car and the camping outfit was thrown from the car by the impact. This accident was due to Mr. Brink falling asleep at the wheel.

After getting things straightened up the party again proceeded on their way and the trip was uneventful until the car came to the scene of the fatal accident. The two boys were asleep in the rear seat of the car. The Palmer youth states that he felt the jolting of the car and roused up a little and thought they were passing over some rough road. He was awakened only when the car struck the water. He immediately tore away part of the back curtain on the car and crawled out, then he assisted the Brink boy out of the car.

The two boys got hold of Mr. Raby's head and tried to pull him out of the water, but failed to raise the man's head from the water only to the eyes. When this attempt at rescue proved useless the boys removed a floor board from the car and attempted to get Mr. Brink out. They were unable however, to even move the body an inch.

The youths ran up to the road and attempted to hail a passing truck, but the driver never heard them or failed to stop to assist. Hearing a dog bark the boys sought a house that must be nearby. They found the home of Frank Kus, who works for Mr. Livingston, and got him out to help them. When Mr. Kus arrived at the scene two more cars had come to the scene of the accident. One of the cars stopped to help while the other came to this city and called Dr. Silsby. The driver of this car took the boys to the O. B. Davis home where they were given dry clothing and food. Gail Davis then took the boys to their homes near Dewitt.

Frank Kus called Mr. Livingston and in a short time Nightwatch Alward, Sheriff Barnes and Dr. Silsby were on the scene. W. R. Osgood & Sons were called by the doctor to take charge of the bodies. Investigation showed that the car had traveled at a slow rate of speed diagonally across the road from the west to the east side, through the willows and down the embankment where it turned over into the dredge ditch. It was also very evident that all members of the ill-fated car were sound asleep when the car left the road.

George E. Brink was 50 years old and was born on the farm where he resided at the time of his untimely death. He leaves the widow and one son, John, who was in the accident. The farm home is located one mile north and one-half mile west and one-quarter mile north of Dewitt.

Henry C. Raby was 50 years of age and was born near Okemos. He is survived by a wife and two sons,

HENRY C. RABY

Chester and Harlan, age 16 and 17. The farm home is one mile north and one mile west of Dewitt.

Both were prominent in church work in Dewitt and will be greatly missed in this activity.

Porter Palmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Palmer who reside on route four near St. Johns, and is a cousin of John Brink.

A double funeral was held for the two neighbors who met their death together, from the Baptist church at 10:30 Sunday morning. Rev. Ellenger, pastor of the German church and Rev. Wahl, retired minister residing in Dewitt, were the officiating pastors. Interment was made in the Dewitt cemetery. W. R. Osgood & Son of St. Johns had charge of the funeral.

cream cashmere and silk, trimmed in chiffon, and carried pink and cream roses. Miss Kinney was attired in white cashmere, trimmed in lace. Miss Pearce was dressed in cream colored cashmere, trimmed in chiffon. The brides, maids carried pink and white carnations. The groom and his attendants were dressed in the conventional black, the groom wearing yellow roses, the attendants wearing red roses.

After the congratulations had been received, the bridal party and friends were escorted to the two spacious dining rooms, where an elaborate supper, from tastily decorated tables, was served by eight young ladies, the Misses Webb, Pike, Kinney, Brinkerhoof, Martzke, Whitaker, Blizzard and Randell, who were each presented with a dainty card tied with white ribbon, upon which was written the bill of fare, also day and date, to be kept as souvenirs. At the ends of the tables presided Mrs. S. Norris, Mrs. M. Dills, Mrs. E. Dills and Mrs. D. Rockwell, who poured the coffee for the girls to serve. The bill of fare consisted of coffee biscuits, meats, pickles, cabbage salads, olives, ice cream, water melon, lemon cheese and angel-food cake, oranges bananas, fruit and bride's cakes. Piano music was furnished by the Misses Lucille Scott, Edna Randell and Mae Clavey. Violin music was furnished by Victor Clavey. ONE WHO WAS THERE.

AN OCTOBER WEDDING.

Just Before the Snow Flies a Happy DeWitt Pair Were United.

One of the largest and most charming weddings in this vicinity took place Wednesday, October 19, 1898, in the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Varney Pearce, of Olive, where nearly three hundred friends assembled to witness the marriage of their eldest daughter, Altie, to Fenton P. Brink, one of Olive's most estimable young men. They have both resided in Olive since childhood, consequently have many warm friends.

The home was beautifully decorated through out with plants and flowers, the parlors being decorated in dahlias and cosmos blossoms. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Simone. At six p. m., while the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march was being played by Miss Lucille Scott, of DeWitt, the bridal party marched into the north parlor, and stood beneath an immense floral horse-shoe, made of white dahlias, where Rev. T. W. Illman, pastor of Universalist church in Bay City, performed a very beautiful and impressive ceremony. The bride and groom were attended by Varney Pearce, a brother of the bride, Miss Hattie Kinney, Mark Drazer and Miss Josephine Pearce, sister of the bride. The bride was prettily attired in
