In Remembrance

God hath not promised —
 Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
 All our lives through;
God hath not promised
 Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow —,
 Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
 Strength for the days,
Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way.
Grace for the trials —,
 Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
 Undying love

From Olive Correspondent:

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cook, of Riley, were reminded last Sunday that 50 years had passed since they were wed, by several of their near relatives appearing at their home and spending the day with them. A bountiful dinner was served. An interesting program was given, in which appeared an original poem by Mrs. Estella Dills. All report an enjoyable time and wish Mr. and Mrs. Cook may live to see many more anniversaries. Geo Simmons is the only witness living who attended this wedding. Mr. Cook has one sister living, Mrs. P. R. Freeman, of Orange Heights, Florida, who was also present.

Just fifty years ago today
The time not long I hear them say
That Amori B. Cook took for his bride
Amina L. Simmons, who sits by his side.
Fifty years ago, Fifty years ago.

With a resolute will and light of heart
Each one resolved to do his or her part
To build for themselves in the forest a home,
Where wild beasts and the red man did roam.
Fifty years ago. Fifty years ago.

They made a little clearing, built a log house,
And lived as cosily as a little mouse
In their snug little quarters on the land
Not far from the place where their house now stands.
Fifty years ago. Fifty years ago.

They have lived to see many a change,
They then cooked over the fire place. They now use a range.
Then green stumps and tall majestic trees
Stood all around them nodding in the breeze.
Fifty years ago. Fifty years ago.

Not many years of time as it passes
Were they left alone o'er three little lasses
Came to gladden their home on earth
And fill it with shouts of laughter and mirth
Since fifty years ago. Fifty years ago.

When the three to womanhood had grown,
A bright little cherub came to the home.
She is now waiting on the other shore,
With outstretched arms to welcome them
o'er
Since fifty years ago, fifty years ago.

Then two granddaughters to them were given,
Which gave to their declining years a taste
of Heaven;
And now for the first time to increase their
joy,
Has been added to the circle a nice baby
boy.
Since fifty years ago, fifty years ago.

But through all the changes that have passed and all that will come,
They still fondly cling to their pioneer
home;
She is their joy, and their pride, and no
other place below,
Can warm their hearts as she has done,
since fifty years ago,
Fifty years ago, fifty years ago.

Written by their loving daughter,
ESTELLA.

Remembering

*There is never a life without sadness,
There is never a heart free from pain;
If one seeks in this world for true solace,
He seeks it forever in vain.*

*So when to your heart comes the sorrow
Of losing some dear one you've known
Tis the touch of God's sickle at harvest
Since He reaps in the fields
He has sown.*
