

MR. and MRS. HORACE P. GAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Horace P. Gage observed their 59th wedding anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 9.

To celebrate the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Frank Knapp entertained in their honor. Dinner guests besides the honored couple included Mrs. Viola Lewis, who was bridesmaid at their wedding, Herbert Ormes, Mrs. Anna Halsey and Mrs. Lillie Yal-lup. A colorful centerpiece of sweet peas adorned the table.

Open house was held from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock when 62 friends and relatives called to extend congratulations and best wishes. Mr. Gage is 86 years old and Mrs. Gage is 78. They were presented with a lovely bouquet of flowers.

The following program was presented during the afternoon: Song, "Mate of Mine," Rev. A. L. Spafford; two piano selections, Mrs. Goldie Brooks; vocal selection, "Sing Every Voice," by Arthur, Mary Lou and Eleanor Spafford; and Mrs. Anna Halsey read the same poem she composed in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary.

Among those from out of town who called were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Servis, Mrs. Alma Servis of Ovid; Mr. and Mrs. King Servis and two sons of Owosso; Mrs. Jessie Granger, Gordon Granger and son of Lansing; and Mrs. Emma Devereaux of Dewitt.

In Loving Memory

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER.....*

Joan Pike of DeWitt Wed Saturday, June 17

MRS. LOUIS W. GARVER

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, June 17, at 2:00, by Joan Ruth Pike, of DeWitt, and Louis W. Garver, of Mason, in the DeWitt Community church. Rev. LaVern Bretz performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with large baskets of pink and white peonies and mock orange blossoms.

Miss Pike's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald S. Pike, of DeWitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garver, of Mason, are the bridegroom's parents.

Preceding the ceremony wedding music was sung by Miss Cecelia McKee, of Lansing, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Richards, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Pike was lovely in a gown of nylon marquisette over taffeta. It was fashioned with a portrait neck-

as best man, and seating the guests were Daniel Garver, of Mason, a brother of the groom, and Richard Pike, of DeWitt, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a sheer navy and white print with matching jacket for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were of navy and a corsage of yellow roses accented her outfit. Mrs. Garver wore a navy sheer with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. A large square wedding cake was centered on a table covered with white linen and was flanked by pink and white lighted tapers. Mrs. Dean Rogers, of Detroit, Mrs. Lee Lankford, Miss Amy McKinney, Miss Barbara Ann

Miss Pike's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald S. Pike, of DeWitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garver, of Mason, are the bridegroom's parents.

Preceding the ceremony wedding music was sung by Miss Cecelia McKee, of Lansing, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Richards, organist.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Pike was lovely in a gown of nylon marquisette over taffeta. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline trimmed with wide chantilly lace. Her long sleeves ended in points over the wrist and the skirt which had an inset of chantilly lace ended in a chapel length train. The fingertip veil was of imported French lace scalloped around the entire edge. She carried a bouquet of pale pink carnations and white rosebuds.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Kathryn Moore, of DeWitt, wore a gown of yellow marquisette over taffeta fashioned with a bertha neckline. She wore matching mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids' dresses of deep aqua were identical to that of the maid-of-honor. Their bouquets were colonial arrangements and all attendants wore head pieces of flowers, which matched their bouquets. Miss Sharon Curtis, whose gown was of pink organdy, was the flower girl. She carried a basket of rose petals. The ring bearer was Jimmy Cook, of Holt, a cousin of the bride.

Richard Rupple, of Detroit, acted

as best man, and seating the guests were Daniel Garver, of Mason, a brother of the groom, and Richard Pike, of DeWitt, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a sheer navy and white print with matching jacket for her daughter's wedding. Her accessories were of navy and a corsage of yellow roses accented her outfit. Mrs. Garver wore a navy sheer with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. A large square wedding cake was centered on a table covered with white linen and was flanked by pink and white lighted tapers. Mrs. Dean Rogers, of Detroit, Mrs. Lee Lankford, Miss Amy McKinney, Miss Barbara Ann Hicks and Miss Nancy Curtis, all of DeWitt, assisted in serving the 200 guests.

After a two weeks' trip to Canada the couple will reside in Lansing. When they left the new Mrs. Garver was wearing a pink silk print with a navy cape of butchen linen with navy and white accessories.

The bride attended Michigan State College for two years and the bridegroom is a graduate of Kingspoint Academy, N. Y., and also from Michigan State.

Guests were present from Detroit, Holt, Kalamazoo, Lansing and Grand Rapids.

PIKE-GARVER

To reside in Lansing after their return from a two weeks' trip to Canada are Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Garver, who were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in DeWitt Community church.

The new Mrs. Garver is the former Miss Joan Ruth Pike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald S. Pike of DeWitt. Mr. Garver is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Garver of Mason.

Rev. LaVern Bretz officiated at the double ring ceremony before 200 guests.

Attending the bride was Miss Kathleen Moore of DeWitt, as maid of honor. Miss Phyllis French of Holt, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Willard Reed of DeWitt were bridesmaids. Sharon Curtis of DeWitt and Jimmy Cook of Holt, both 3 years old, were flower girl and ring bearer.

Groomsman was Richard Rupple of Detroit. Richard Pike of DeWitt, brother of the bride, and Daniel Garver of Mason, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Miss Cecelia McKee of Lansing was wedding soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Richards of DeWitt, organist.

The bride's gown was fashioned of nylon marquisette over taffeta with a portrait neckline trimmed with Chantilly lace.

The fingertip-length veil was of imported French lace, scalloped around the entire edge. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor chose a gown of yellow marquisette over taffeta fashioned with a bertha neckline. She wore matching mitts and carried a colonial bouquet of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley.

The two bridesmaids were dressed alike in deep aqua gowns styled after the maid of honor. Their bouquets were colonial arrangements. The attendants' headbands were made of small flowers, matching their bouquets. The flower girl was in pink organdy and carried a basket from which she scattered rose petals.

A sheer navy and white print dress was worn by Mrs. Pike. The accessories were white and her corsage was of yellow roses. Mrs. Garver wore a navy sheer dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Mrs. Dean Rogers of Detroit, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Nancy Curtis, Mrs. Eugene Vincent, Mrs. Lee Lankford, Miss Amy McKinney and Miss Barbara Hicks, all of DeWitt, assisted at the reception in the church parlors.

The new Mrs. Garver attended Michigan State college. Mr. Garver is a graduate of the same school. He was also a graduate from Kingspoint academy, Kingspoint, N. Y.

TALENTED MUSICIAN CALLED TO LAST REST

MRS. GEO. P. GILLET PASSED TO THE GREAT BEYOND.

Mrs. George P. Gillet died at an early hour Saturday morning after a declining illness of several months. She is well known here and in the East as a musician of marked talent, and will be missed greatly by her many friends. In spite of her failing health, her great courage never deserted her.

Mrs. Gillet was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gillet of this city. She was born in DeWitt, December 19, 1873. When but a child her parents removed to St. Johns where she obtained her early education in the high school of this city. Several years later when she was still a young lady her parents moved to Detroit where she was given every possible advantage in the musical line. She studied for several years under the best masters in that city where she was married to George P. Gillet, a talented tenor singer. After their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Gillet went to Europe where they studied together for some time under the best masters.

After returning from Europe, Mr. and Mrs. Gillet located in New York City where they remained for several years. While there many recitals and concerts were given in that city as well as in the surrounding cities, even going as far west as Nebraska. Every summer was spent with her parents who removed to this city several years ago. As usual, Mr. and Mrs. Gillet came early in the spring to spend the summer in St. Johns but on account of her failing health did not return to New York City.

Mrs. Gillet was a member of the Mother church, "The First Church of Christ," Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts, and also a member of the Christian Science Society of this city.

The funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at two o'clock. The service was a Christian Science service and was conducted by A. D. Baker, of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Lansing.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Frank Stone, Mrs. S. L. Marshall, G. E. Judd, and H. E. Walsworth sang the hymns, "Abide With Me," "In Heavenly Love Abiding," and "Nearer My God To Thee."

Relatives here from away were: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. O'Neil of Chicago; Mrs. E. Ellis and daughters and Mrs. Alex. Kennedy of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. W. Rich, Thos. Rich and Byron Rich of Ionia; Mrs. Nettie Huston, Harry Huston, Miss Ida Huston, Mrs. May Eesselstyne, George Holmes and Glenn Holmes of Lansing; J. V. O'Keefe of Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Helmer Goette of Orion.

Christian Scientist friends present from away were: Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Baker, Mrs. Wm. Donavan, Mrs. F. Seibly; Mrs. George Field, Mrs. Shultz and Mrs. Trossell of Lansing; Mrs. Henson of Fort Collins, Colo.; and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Burns of Meridian Beach.

ORAL W. GRANGER

O. W. GRANGER DIES NOV. 7TH

Short Illness Fatal to Well Known St. Johns Man;
Funeral Wednesday

Oral W. Granger, lifelong resident of Clinton county and for more than 30 years a well known and well liked St. Johns citizen, died Sunday afternoon, Nov. 7, at Clinton Memorial hospital. He was 67 years old.

Mr. Granger was taken ill a week prior to his death. Pneumonia developed and he failed rapidly. Saturday he was taken to the hospital and given special treatment but failed to rally and passed away the following day.

Last rites were conducted Wednesday afternoon at the Eberts funeral home. Rev. Earl F. Collins, officiated and burial was made in Mt. Rest cemetery.

Oral William Granger was born Oct. 28, 1870, in Olive township, the son of Andrew and Anjeanette Granger. His early life was spent in the vicinity of his birthplace.

In 1894 he was married to Kittle Harper of Bengal township and after residing about 10 years in that community they came to St. Johns, which continued to be their home for the past 31 years.

Besides the widow he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. L. O. Titus of Saginaw, Mrs. O. B. Moore of St. Johns and Mrs. E. J. Kueser of Boise, Idaho; two brothers, Arthur E. Granger of Durand, and Elmer E. Granger of Reno, Nevada; four grandchildren and a host of other relatives and friends.

Miss Barbara Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Green of this city, and Norman Moinet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moinet of near Dewitt, were united in marriage on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 28. The couple spoke their vows at 2 o'clock before Fr. Joseph Whelan in the St. Joseph rectory.

The bride was attractively attired in a gown of white net over taffeta, with which she wore a fingertip veil of net and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Miss Olive Moinet, sister of the bridegroom, as maid of honor, wore pink marquisette. This was complemented by a headband of mixed flowers.

Kathryn Schyffert of Lansing and Mrs. Glenn Hopp of Dewitt, were bridesmaids. They were attired in gowns of pink brocaded chiffon and blue marquisette, respectively, and they also wore headbands of mixed flowers.

Joseph Hopko assisted the bridegroom as best man, while Alvin Drake, cousin of the bridegroom, and Glenn Hopp were groomsmen.

Dinner was served at six o'clock at the Moinet residence, where the table was adorned by a decorated wedding cake, flanked by burning tapers and bouquets of seasonal flowers. The 30 guests were served by the Misses Connie Moore, LaRee Desprez, and Betty Malone of Lansing. In the evening the reception and wedding dance was held at Olive Grange hall, where music for dancing was furnished by Stevens orchestra.

MRS. DORA GRINOLD'S FUNERAL IS FRIDAY

Well Known DeWitt Woman Takes Own Life while Despondent

Carls Over Ill Health Brother

Special to The State Journal:

DEWITT, April 17—Mrs. Dora Grinold, whose tragic death occurred in her home on West Washington street, Tuesday, was born in Lansing, January 31, 1878, and came with her parents, Martin and Theressa Rohrer and family to Olive township. When a young girl, she and the family continued to reside in this locality. On October 21, 1906 she was married to J. Russell Grinold of this village. One son was born to them, Carl Emerson Grinold, who lived with his mother at the time of her death.

Mr. Grinold died December 25, 1928. Since that time Mrs. Grinold has been in poor health, the weight of business cares and worry over her physical condition is attributed as the cause of her death. She was a member of the Baptist church and the DeWitt Grange and is survived by the son, Carl; an aged mother, Mrs. Theressa Rohrer, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Mavers, Mrs. Anna Dyer and Mrs. Bertha Lietake, and five brothers, Henry, George, Theodore, Carl, and Frank Rohrer, all of DeWitt.

Funeral will be held from the church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. G. S. Northrup will officiate. Burial will be in DeWitt cemetery.

GRiffin, PHYLLIS R.

JEREMIAH 31:3

PSALM 23

*The LORD is my shepherd,
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in
green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil,
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff,
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me
all the days of my life,
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*
