Gets Surprise On 72nd Birthday

(By Abbie E. Dills)

Dewitt—Saturday, March 31 Mrs. Ida O. Cook Randell of South Riley was given a complete surprise by her sister, Mrs. Estelle Mrs. Dewitt and her daughter, Mrs. Edna Pike of Olive, spending the afternoon with her in honor of her 72nd birthday. A supper was served by her daughters, Mrs. Maude Cutler and Mrs. Edna Pike. She was presented with a birthday cake decorated with 72 candles, by her daughter, Mrs. Pike. Mrs. Randell was born on this farm in South Riley in 1856 and it has been her home continuously for 72 years. Ever since she was 15 years old she has been in poor health and for the past winter has been unable to leave her home. She received many post cards and an interesting letter from an old school mate of her girlhood, recalling many incidents of their school days. Her guests departed, wishing her many returns of her birthday.

SOUTH RILEY.

Miss Edna Randall, who is attending the Ferris school at Big Rapids, is at home spending the holiday vacation.

Blanche Stevens of Belding is spending the week with relatives in this vicinity.

Married, at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cook, Wednesday, December 24. 1902, Miss Maud Randall and Marcus Cutler.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be
 no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For though from out
 our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my Pilot
 face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Joyce Thompson-Willard Reed Wed In Lansing Church of Resurrection

Church of the Resurrection was the scene Saturday morning of the marriage of Miss Joyce Thompson to Willard J. Reed. Msgr. John Gabriels celebrated the nuptial mass. White and pink gladioli and white tapers were arranged on the altar.

One hundred fifty guests attended the 9 o'clock ceremony. The new Mrs. Reed is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil O. Thompson of DeWitt and Mr. Reed is the son of Mrs. Mary Reed of DeWitt.

Miss Shirley Thompson was maid of honor for her sister and Miss Joan Pike and Miss Kathryn Moore were bridesmaids. The attendants are all from DeWitt.

Groomsman was Gerald Reed of Escanaba and John Miller and James Decatur, both of DeWitt, were ushers.

The bride chose a gown of white Skinner satin with an altar-length train and finger-tip-length veil held in place by a head dress of white satin and seed pearls. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of Johanna Hill roses and white ribbon.

The maid of honor wore a gown of teal blue satin with head dress of matching satin and pearls. She carried a cascade of glamellias. The bridesmaids wore rose satin gowns with head dresses of matching satin and pearls and carried round cascade arrangements of light pink glamellias.

A reception took place in the Memorial building, DeWitt.

After a honeymoon trip to Florida, the newlyweds will return the last of September to reside in DeWitt.
