Cushman

Dateline DeWitt

with Faye Hanson

DeWitt City Librarian

and

Chairman, DeWitt Bicentennial Commission

Few people in DeWitt Township know that their neighbor, Fordney Cushman, of 3360 East Clark Road, is a direct descendant of John Howland one of the original passengers on the Mayflower which landed in Plymouth, Mass. in 1620. And that another direct descendant, Thomas Cushman, arrived the following year 1621. Howland's daughter, Ruth married Cushman's son.

Fordney Cushman is the tenth generation to live in America. He resides on a Centennial Farm at the Clark Road address. A 7th generation descendant of John Howland, Gilbert Cushman, homesteaded a farm in the Gunnisonville area of DeWitt Township in 1839. He was born in Kent, New York and came to Michigan bringing his wife and 10 children. Most of them are buried in the Gunnisonville Cemetery. Cushman still has the land patent granted to Gilbert.

He belongs to the Genealogical Society of Mayflower Descendants which was founded in 1897 to 'perpetuate the memory of the Pilgrims to maintain and defend the principles of civil and religious liberty, to cherish and maintain the ideals and institutions of American Freedom and to oppose any theories or actions that threaten their continuity.'

Fordney Cushman

Cushman has been to Massachusetts and has had to document all facts of his ancestry to become a member of the society.

Death Takes Oldest Of Five Generations

W. R. Jones. Earl Jones.
Mrs. Vienna Cutler. Veda Jones. Mrs. Persis Jones.

In the death of Mrs. Vienna Cutler at her home in Watertown township last week the above line of five generations was broken. Mrs. Cutler, was 91, her daughter, Mrs. Jones, is 72; W. R. Jones is a son of Mrs. Jones, Earl Jones is his son, and Veda is the latter's daughter. The Joneses all reside in Osceola county.

FIVE GENERATIONS, AT HEAD OF WHICH IS MRS. VIENNA CUTLER

W. R. Jones. Earl Jones.
Mrs. Vienna Cutler. Veda Jones. Mrs. Persis Jones.
MRS. VIENNA CUTLER AND DESCENDANTS.

In the present age of hustle, hurry and worry, representatives of five generations, all living and enjoying good health, is a particularly rare thing, yet Mrs. Vienna Cutler, one of the oldest residents of South Riley, is at the head of five generations and of two others from which, however, some of the younger members have died.

Mrs. Cutler is 91 years of age, and her daughter, Mrs. Persis Jones, 70. Mrs. Jones' son, W. R. Jones, and his son, Earl Jones, and the young man's daughter, Veda, aged two years, complete the five generations. The Jones' members all reside in Osceola county.

Mrs. Cutler was born in Massachusetts and came with her husband when they were both quite young, to Michigan, settling on some land Mr. Cutler took up at South Riley. Here they underwent all the hardships and toils of early land breakers, and with but few neighbors except Indians, hewed a home out of the great Michigan wilderness.

Six children, four daughters and two sons were born to them. The husband and two daughters are now deceased.

Mrs. Cutler still resides on the old homestead, but sleeps nights at the home of her son, E. W. Cutler, who lives just across the road. Her love for the old home that she and her husband labored so hard for in their early wedded life becomes dearer to her each year, and she spends all the time she can in it.

Her health had been very good up until a year or so ago, and she took long walks after berries, or in fact did any thing almost that she wished, taking long railway journeys to visit relatives and was just as independent in getting about as women 50 years her junior.

She often amuses the younger members of the Cutler generation by her stories of early days, and she is an authority on Indian lore of the old tribes that roamed through this portion of the state.

The aged woman is a grandmother of Marcus C. Cutler, letter carrier at station A, of this city, and frequently visits him, taking great delight in two healthy little great grandsons in the letter carrier's family.

Mrs. Cutler is still very cheerful and happy. She retains all her faculties, but is now slightly lame. Perfectly contented, she is waiting for the end when the reward which she has always had faith in awaits those who have feared God and tried to keep his commandments.

91 YEARS OF AGE

MRS. VIENNA CUTLER DEAD IN

LORE OF LOCAL TRIBES.

Was One of Five Generations Living at One Time—Survived by Many Lineal Descendants.

By the death of Mrs. Vienna Cutler, which occurred November 29th, 1909, Watertown loses one of its oldest pioneers.

Vienna Wright was born at Springfield, Massachusetts, Oct. 28th, 1818, and was married to David R. Cutler Dec. 20th, 1835. They moved to Watertown, Clinton county, Mich., 62 years ago, settling on section 4, when it was a wilderness. The husband passed away Feb. 22nd, 1892. Mrs. Cutler was past 91 years old at the time of her death. Six children were born to them, Ann and Alice dying a number of years ago. Four children are living—Henry R. Cutler of Watertown, Elam W. Cutler of Riley, Mrs. Lucy Plowman of Iron Mountain, Mich., and Mrs. Percies Jones of Marion, Mich., besides 16 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and 6 great-great-grandchildren.

Her health had been very good until about two years ago when the infirmities of age kept her most of the time indoors. Up to that time she took long railway journeys to visit her relatives and was just as independent in getting about as women 50 years younger.

She often amused the younger members of the Cutler family by her stories of early days and she was an authority on Indian lore of the old tribes that roamed through this portion of the State.

The funeral was held at her old home here that she loved so well, and was largely attended. The sermon was delivered by Miss Abbie Sheets of Grand Ledge and interment made in South Riley cemetery beside her husband.

Lifelong Resident Dead

Elim W. Cutler was born June 3, 1847 in Watertown, Clinton county, Mich., and departed this life Sunday, Feb. 11, 1923, aged 76 years.

He was the fifth child of David and Vienna Cutler, who were among the first settlers of this county, enduring the hardships of pioneer life with them, and lived his entire life in this community, settling on a farm in South Riley across the road from his parental home.

Mr. Cutler was an ardent lover of the great outdoors and while he was not affiliated with any church, he drew his spiritual life from the trees, plants and streams among which he lived and had his being.

He was united in marriage to Ellen Love, Jan. 22, 1865. February 28, 1878, she passed away and to this union were three children born: David R., Lillian B. and Marc D. January 23, 1879, he was again united in marriage to Martha Philpott and to this union two children were born: Nina L. and Kenneth N. All with the exception of David R., survive him, also one brother, Henry Culter, of DeWitt, and two sisters, Mrs. Lucy Plowman of Iron Mountain, Mich., and Mrs. Persis Jones of Marion, Mich. Two sisters, Mrs. Ann Foreman and Miss Alice Cutler, departed this life several years ago. He also leaves thirteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

He was a member of the Clinton County Pioneer Society, also a charter member of the South Riley Grange No. 456, joining in 1874 and remaining a member until his death.

His funeral was held from his late home Friday afternoon, Feb. 16, 1923, and interment was made in South Riley cemetery. Rev. G. S. Northrup, pastor of Baptist church, officiated. Mrs. Grace Coon sang and Mrs. Merle Kraas persided at the piano. The bearers, William Foreman, Fred Jones, Harvey, Eeverett, Bert and Leon Cutler, were his nephews and grandnephew. The friends from away to attend the funeral were Miss Bessie Eddy, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Eddy and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eddy of Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Plowman of Delta, and Mrs. Mary Foreman, and Mrs. Edna Wight and children of Hillsdale.

We gracefully acknowledge the kindness and sympathy of our friends and neighbors during our recent bereavement.- Mrs. Martha Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. Marc Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Dutcher, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Cutler and families.

On Jan. 25, 1879, she was united in marriage to Edwin Wright Cutler of Riley township, this county, and to this union two children were born, Mrs. Dutcher and a son, Kenneth Cutler, of Manistique, Mich.

Her husband preceded her in death on Feb. 11, 1921. He was a charter member of the South Riley Grange, an organization with which he became affiliated and at the time of death was a life member. During the last years of her life she retained her interest in the grange.

To close the eye, to fall asleep, ~~and~~
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away, ~~and~~
The soul, ~~and~~ the everlasting life,
Has found a better day,

Cheering Up the Community

Here is a Grange sextet that is widely known as the arch enemy of Dull care. Without question the medical profession has lost many calls and the people have avoided a corresponding number of bills just because this little group was able to make them laugh, to jiggle the liver, to tickle the spleen and to get the digestive and nervous systems back to normal.

Hear Cutler Tonight

MARC D. CUTLER
Michigan's Harry Lauder

Probably no event of recent date could be of more real interest to the people of Rockford than the appearance of Marc D. Cutler at the Congregational church this evening. Mr. Cutler is known as the Harry Lauder of Michigan and those who have had the pleasure before of hearing him will take no chances in missing this rare treat which has been made possible through the efforts of the Mite Society of the local church. There will be a monologue and reading among the other features on the program and a good orchestra will be present to render several selections. The time is 8:00 o'clock and the price of admission is 25c for adults and 15c for children under twelve years of age.

MARC CUTLER DELIGHTS BIG SPARTA AUDIENCE

Marc Cutler delighted a large audience at the Baptist church last Thursday night with his Scotch dialect songs. So suggestive is Mr. Cutler's work that he is known as "Michigan's Harry Lauder." He used many of the Lauder songs and is reported to have injected many of the Lauder characteristics into his program. Mr. Cutler is from DeWitt, Mich., and for some time past has been coming into prominence with his talent, and it is more and more in demand. The evening's entertainment was varied by selections by the high school orchestra and recitations by Ransom Elkins. The proceeds of the evening were about $70 net and will go into the treasury of the fourth division of the Baptist Aid Society.

The "Harry Lauder" of Michigan's Grange

MARC D. CUTLER.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DE WITT, Mich., Nov. 15.—No important Grange gathering in Michigan is quite complete without the engaging baritone voice and the colorful kilties of Marc D. Cutler, who is known throughout the State as the "Grange Harry Lauder." His latest appearance was at the annual meeting of the Michigan State Grange at Muskegon.

If the original owner of the name ever drops in at a meeting where Cutler is holding forth he is likely to sue the latter for plagiarism or infringement on his copyright, or whatever singers have to protect the tricks of their trade, for Cutler's impersonation is clever and surprisingly accurate.

Cutler's home is on a farm near De Witt. He is 48 years old. Perhaps it's the farm life that keeps him young, or perhaps it's the songs of "Mary, My Scotch Bluebell." At any rate, his age is usually taken to be less than 30.

On Wednesday evening, at the Town hall, under management of committee of local Grange, a vocal and instrumental recital was given by Mark D. Cutler, vocalist and interpreter of Scotch songs and monologues, assisted by two from Eaton Rapids, Mrs. Mabel Blackett, violinist, and Mrs. Moon, lute. Mr. Cutler's number given in Scotch Highlander costume, and as both vocalist and dramatic interpreter rank equal to the distinguished artist, Harry Lauder. In lower range the Louder voice a rather lower range heavier and firm quality. Aside from

The eighth grade reception given by the eighth grade of the Carson City schools has become one of the outstanding events of the year. The

An unexpected treat was in store for the audience by the presence of Marc D. Cutler of DeWitt, who has been termed the Harry Lauder of Michigan. Mr. Cutler appeared in full Scotch costume and had a typical Harry Lauder cane, captivating the audience with his excellent rendering of Scotch songs. The audience expressed appreciation by enthusiastic applause and he had to respond to two encores.

Next on the program was a flower dance given by the Carson City 8th grade girls who were appropriately costumed. It was very pretty and was splendidly given. This was followed by a gypsy dance also given by eighth grade girls who were fittingly costumed and nicely executed.

Not to be outdone by the girls five boys of the 8th grade gave a Scotch dance in an excellent manner and in response to the demand for an encore gave the "Campbells Are Coming."

Mr. Cutler was cordially received when he again appeared and gave some more Scotch songs, concluding with the old-time favorite, "In the Gloaming," and asked the audience to join in the chorus.

"MICHIGAN LAUDER" TO SING AT SPARTA

Marc Cutler.
