MARRIED.

A very quiet wedding took place on Saturday evening, May 16, at the U. B. parsonage when Rev. J. A. Blickenstaff united in marriage Miss Mabel I. Burke, of Olive, Clinton county, Mich., to Roy J. Peterson, of Olive. The young people are well-known and highly esteemed by all. Mrs. Peterson is one of Clinton county's most efficient school teachers, having taught for several years. Mr. Peterson is an electrician by profession and is in the employ of the Electric company. They expect to spend a little time in Traverse City, Mich., where Mrs. Peterson's mother lives, and then will be at their home in Olive, where they will be glad to see their many friends. We bespeak for them a happy future.

Peterson

The living room of the home of Mr and Mrs Edward Parker of 1141 DeWitt road, DeWitt, was decorated with bouquets of white glads Thursday evening, Sept. 8, for the lovely candlelight home ceremony in which their daughter, Judith Ann Parker and Gary C. Peterson exchanged their wedding vows.

A DAY IN CHICAGO

Carl VanFleet and Leon Phelps Visited the Windy City.

Carl VanFleet of DeWitt in company with his friend Leon Phelps, took advantage of the excursion Sunday, June 7, to visit his brother, Earl, who met them at Polk street depot at 1:30 p.m.

As their time was limited they did not see as much of the city as they would have liked to. The first place of interest visited, was the Art Institute, which is located on lake front. They enjoyed very much the beautiful statuary and paintings, and especially the paintings in the Henry Field Memorial room. After leaving the Art Institute they walked to the MontGomery Ward's new building which is also located on lake front. Then, taking a car to north side, they visited Lincoln park, where they found much to interest them. After an hour and a half's enjoyment at the park, they returned to the business part of the city.

Notwithstanding it was Sunday and against the rules to admit visitors to the Marshall Field & Co's. wholesale house they were allowed to enter and were shown the department in which Earl VanFleet is employed. From here they visited Earl's new home in Eaglewood, where they took luncheon with him. The evening was spent at McCricker's theatre enjoying, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home." At 11:30 the two tired and sleepy boys made their departure for Lansing, Michigan, feeling well pleased with the day.

DIED OF APOPLEXY

END CAME SUDDENLY TO MRS. CHAS.
E. PHELPS OF BATH.

Mrs. Phila Ann Phelps, wife of Charles E. Phelps, passed out of this life February 28, under peculiar circumstances. She, together with her husband and youngest son, started to go to a neighbor's to spend the evening and got as far as the Rose church. There was a large snow drift by the corner of the church and she said to her husband, "Let me get out." She was afraid to ride into the drift as she had met with an accident previously to this in a snow drift. Mr. Phelps helped her out and as she got onto the ground, she spoke and said, "I cannot breathe. Loosen these things from about my throat." He did so, setting her down on the church steps, but she expired almost immediately. Her body was carried into Wm. Abel's house for a short time and then removed to her own home. The cause of her death was apoplexy. The funeral services were held at the Rose church Sunday morning. Interment in Rose cemetery.

Mrs. Phelps passed away on the threshold of the sanctuary where she had worshiped for many years. She was an indefatigable church worker and a kind mother and neighbor. She leaves a husband, one daughter of Charlevoix County, and three sons, two of whom live in Bath, the other being principal of the DeWitt high school.

DEATH CLAIMS MILLARD PIKE

Lifelong Resident of Clinton
County, Aged 79, is

Buried Saturday

Millard Fillmore Pike, son of James and Ann Matilda Pike, was born in Olive, Clinton county, September 16, 1852. He was one of a family of eight children and at the death of his parents which occurred when he was quite young, he went to live in the family of A. B. Cook in Riley.

On January 13, 1877, he was united in marriage to Ella Rosalind Simmons and to them were born a son and a daughter, George Simmons and Dora Agnes. The greater part of their married life was spent upon a farm in Olive.

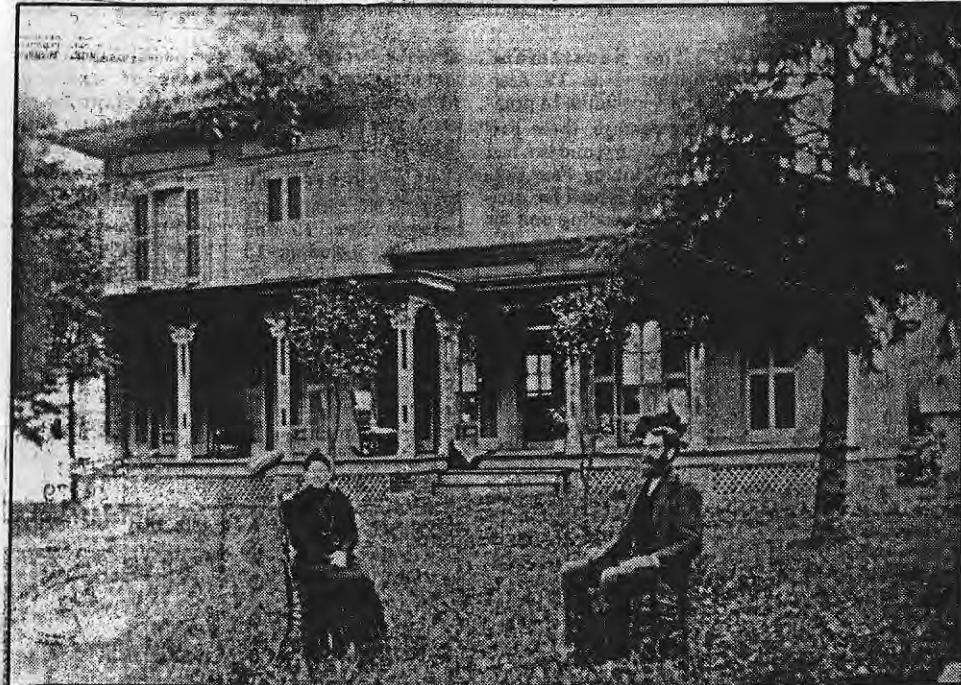

In the spring of 1907, they moved to Dewitt village. His wife passed away October 20, 1910. Mr. Pike then returned to the farm to assist in caring for the family of his son who was in poor health and who passed on July 15, 1915. He remained upon the farm, giving a father's care to his grandsons until the infirmities of age and ill health compelled him to give up all activities. For the past seven years he had been a great sufferer from heart trouble.

Three years ago he sold the farm and purchased a home in Dewitt where he lived a year with his daughter-in-law, but for the past two years he had lived with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Steinhardt in East Dewitt. His last illness began with the new year, and he grew steadily worse until Wednesday evening, Jan. 20, when his prayers were answered and he was called above, aged 79 years, 4 months and 4 days.

The deceased was a believer in universal salvation and his religion consisted in doing good. His greatest pleasure in life was in performing generous acts and kindly deeds for others. He was a kind husband, father, friend and neighbor and no one enjoyed his friendship or appreciated a kindness more than he. Besides his daughter, Mrs. Agnes Steinhardt, he is survived by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edna Pike; three grandsons, Glenwood, Loyde and Gerald Pike; two brothers, D. Scott Pike of Dewitt, and William J. Pike of Newaygo; a sister, Mrs. Agnes Fair of Knoxville, Tenn.; two great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends. The funeral was held at the Baptist church in Dewitt Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and he was laid to rest in Dewitt cemetery beside his wife. Rev. Northrup of St. Johns spoke comforting words to the sorrowing friends and Mr. and Mrs. Marc Cutler sang, "When I Have Crossed the Bar," and "Jesus Remembers When the World Forgets." Miss Rhoda Bell Reynolds acted as pianist. He was borne to his last resting place amid a profusion of flowers by Glenwood and Gerald Pike, Donald, Neil and Vernon Cutler and Hugh Bond.

Coin gives mind-bending example of DeWitt's intricate family ties

Last week I mentioned the intricate network of families ties in old DeWitt... Well, a while back, Freddie (Tingay) Ford wrote me a note asking for some information on how her ancestors were related to DeWitt pioneers. So, until I have a chance to help her out, the following scenario will illustrate what I meant when I said, "Every time someone tried to put it down on paper a blood vessel in their brain would burst."

Pay attention now, cause I'm only going to go through this mind-bender once. Then I'm going to have to take a nap.

The story starts in the late 1700's in Londonderry, Vt. in the household of Elisha and Abigail Cook who had recently moved there from Providence, R.I. Abigail was a Williams and a direct descendant of Roger Williams, the Separatist whom Gov. Winthrop's Pilgrims kicked out of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and the founder of Providence.

Among Elisha and Abigail's twelve children were four who connect to current DeWitt: Safey, Joseph, Edward and Nancy Alta.

Safey, the oldest of the twelve, married James Cochran. She died in New York state but her husband and children soon moved to Michigan and settled at Eaton Rapids. Her son married a Naracong (a sister to the Naracongs and Knapps of DeWitt) and two of her grandchildren married one another. Their descendants, the Tingays, later moved to DeWitt.

Joseph and his family moved to DeWitt about 1840 and settled northwest of town. His daughter Abigail adopted her cousins orphan, David Scott Pike. David married Viola Cook, Abigail's brother Amori's daughter (they were second cousins) and his grandmother was Nancy Alta (mentioned further down). Now, Viola had a sister (Ida) whose daughter Edna married Viola and David's nephew George Pike (they too were second cousins by way of their mutual great-grandparents, Atwell and Lovina Simmons, as well as third cousins on the other side of the house, by way of their mutual great-grandparents — Elisha and Abigail Cook. Joseph's son Amori (already mentioned) married Amina Simmons (they weren't related that we know of but, the both were related to the Naracongs). Descendants in DeWitt from this branch include: Gerald Pike, Wally Cutler, Martha Reed and Bonnie Ward.

Who's got a headache? Raise your hand.

Edward settled in southern Michigan but his wife was connected to DeWitt because she was an Utley. Their son Addison (a veteran of the Toledo War) came to DeWitt and married an Antoinette Alexander from north of town and they settled here. Their descendants apparently had a dispensation to marry outside of the family; their daughter Ada married Edward Bedell and some descendants might still be located in Bath or Lansing.

Nothing exciting there — but get out the aspirin for this last one.

Nancy Alta married Mark W. Pike (raised by the same Utley family that Edward Cook married into) and they followed the Utleys from Vermont to DeWitt in the 1840's. Their daughter Alta married David Scott, Jr., a son of DeWitt's founder and the Scott's son married a Moon (but that's another story). Another of Nancy Alta's sons, James, died young leaving several orphans who were farmed-out to friends and family. One of his orphans was David Scott Pike (see up above). Another was Millard Filmore Pike who was raised by his father's cousin, Amori Cook. Millard later married Amori's wife's niece, Ella Simmons. Ella's mother was her father's school teacher (now there's a new twist). Millard and Ella's son George married Edna Randall, Amori and Amina's granddaughter. Amina's parents (Ella's grandparents) were Atwell and Lovina (Knapp) Simmons (Riley township's first settlers). Lovina's brother Samuel married one of the Naracong sisters and her uncle, Ebenezer Knapp left a widow who later married Lovina's husband's (Atwell's) father, Ephriam Simmons. And, Atwell's sister Lillis married her own step-brother (Lovina's cousin), Henry Knapp.

Thank you Freddie for that thought provoking question (a SASE will get you a diagram of the whole mess).

Historic DeWitt Mark Woodbury By Kenneth Coin

Pike

Mark Woodbury Pike was born in Rutland, Vermont, Sept. 9, 1799. Nothing is known of his early years but family histories relate that he was raised by Ephraim H. Utley. In 1818 Mark was married to Nancy Alta Cook (born Nov. 20, 1797 in Vermont) a daughter of Elisha and Abigail (Williams) Cook. The mother, Abigail, was a direct descendant of Roger Williams, founder of Providence, Rhode Island.

The Pike family remained in Vermont until about 1824 when they moved west to Belmont, New York where they remained for nearly fifteen years.

In 1839 the ever increasing Pike family came to the wilderness of DeWitt and made a settlement along what is now Norris road. They erected a log shanty which was soon replaced by a more substantial log home. This second log home provided the Pikes and several other pioneer families with shelter and was not torn down until about 1915.

The Utley family, with whom Mark Pike was connected earlier in life, had already settled at DeWitt and many members of Nancy Pike's family, including her brother, Joseph Cook, were soon to follow.

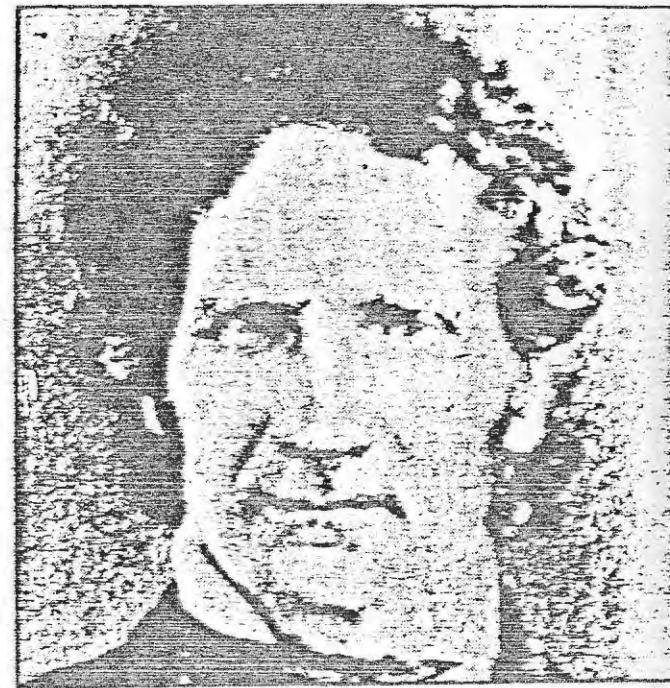

Mark and Nancy had eight children, four of whom died at relatively young ages. Of the eight: Mark Woodbury, Jr. remained at Belmont, New York (although some of his descendants later lived in DeWitt); James Green came to DeWitt in 1849 with his young family but died in 1864 leaving his seven children orphans; Nancy "Alta" married David Scott, Jr., son of DeWitt's founder; Elisha Cook followed his Scott family nephews to the wilds of Cheboygan County in the 1880's; Enoch died young; Joseph W. and William R. both followed the dream of the California gold rush but each died within a few years; Jacob Sidney (the youngest) was somewhat a rover. He left DeWitt for Northern Michigan and New York State.

In 1855 there occurred a series of religious revivals in the DeWitt area, called "protracted Meetings." According to local and family sources, Mark W. Pike became obsessed with the fervor of the revival. A letter written that year by his nephew, Amori B. Cook, declares, "There has been a great revival in this neighborhood and I pray that it may do good. Uncle Pike is clear carried away with it. He feels good now, I tell you."

Agnes Pike Steinhardt, a great-granddaughter of Mark W. Pike wrote early in this century that he, "for some time went about the country, calling at school houses, asking to be allowed to preach. He was never refused as nearly all the teachers were afraid of him. He would also stand on a knoll between the house and barn, gaze directly at the sun, and preach his sermons."

Nancy (Cook) Pike died April 10, 1864 and Mark afterward lived with his daughter and son-in-law, David and Alta Scott, in the village of DeWitt. Here he died April 12, 1869. Both he and his wife, as well as most of their family, are buried in the DeWitt cemetery.

Matson and Skorich office was home to Bradfield family

By KEN COIN

Walter Hubble came to the area in 1837 as an 18-year-old member of the "Waterloo Joint-Stock Co." which founded Wacousta. He was (with perhaps a brother) a merchant there for the company until 1840 and remained a resident until 1844 when he moved to some government land he had purchased in 1836 in Essex Township (north and west of present St. Johns). He remained there only a few years before moving back south, to DeWitt, in 1846. Here he established himself in partnership with Courtland Hill in a general store on the northeast corner of Washington and Bridge (on the present site of Terranova's).

That same year (1846), Hubble purchased the lots where the Matson & Skorich offices are now located and, in 1848, built the present building as his home. He apparently arrived in DeWitt with a political reputation for, aside from his vocation as a merchant, he was elected county clerk in 1846 and held the office until 1850. He was also elected justice of the peace in 1848. His political career seems to have offered a sufficient wage for it was also in 1848 that his partnership with Courtland Hill dissolved and Hill (Bengal Township's first settler in 1837) returned to his own substantial homestead in that township.

The old Randolph Strickland home at 202 E. Washington, currently the law offices of Matson and Skorich.

Although this photograph was taken over 50 years ago, the house itself was, at that time, nearly 100 years old. The picture shows a unique feature original to the house, a recessed porch (on the right) which faced the west. Tending to her flower beds in the center is Jessie Bradfield: the house was "home" to the Bradfield family for many years in the middle of this century. Ca. 1939, Helen Hilts, photographer; courtesy of Dan Matson.

For Hubble, what appeared to be a political career on the rise was simply a flash in the pan. He died in the fall of 1851 at the young age of 34 and was buried in the DeWitt Cemetery.

Randolph and Mary (Gooch) Strickland bought this home soon after their marriage in 1851. (You'll remember Mary: it was her mother who had the misfortune of falling off the packet boat along the Erie Canal.) The site was conveniently located for

About 1870, the home was purchased by Elisha and Frances (Marshall) Pike, who remained here until the 1880's when they became part of the large migration of DeWitt families who relocated to the area of Wolverine, Michigan.

Except for the elimination of the porches, the house remains much as it originally did nearly 150 years ago. Several original interior doors, with thumb latch catches, remain intact. The solid structure was built with post and beam construction and the unique hip-roof is self-supporting, offering a large second floor "chamber", originally accessed by a tiny closet staircase.

DEATH CLAIMS MILLARD PIKE

Lifelong Resident of Clinton
County, Aged, 79, Is
Buried Saturday

Millard Fillmore Pike, son of James and Ann Matilda Pike, was born in Olive, Clinton county, September 16, 1852. He was one of a family of eight children and at the death of his parents which occurred when he was quite young, he went to live in the family of A. B. Cook in Riley.

On January 13, 1877, he was united in marriage to Ella Rosalind Simmons and to them were born a son and a daughter, George Simmons and Dora Agnes. The greater part of their married life was spent upon a farm in Olive.

In the spring of 1907, they moved to Dewitt village. His wife passed away October 20, 1910. Mr. Pike then returned to the farm to assist in caring for the family of his son who was in poor health and who passed on July 15, 1915. He remained upon the farm, giving a father's care to his grandsons until the infirmities of age and ill health compelled him to give up all activities. For the past seven years he had been a great sufferer from heart trouble.

Three years ago he sold the farm and purchased a home in Dewitt where he lived a year with his daughter-in-law, but for the past two years he had lived with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Steinhardt in East Dewitt. His last illness began with the new year, and he grew steadily worse until Wednesday evening, Jan. 20, when his prayers were answered and he was called above, aged 79 years, 4 months and 4 days.

The deceased was a believer in universal salvation and his religion consisted in doing good. His greatest pleasure in life was in performing generous acts and kindly deeds for others. He was a kind husband, father, friend and neighbor and no one enjoyed his friends or appreciated a kindness more than he. Besides his daughter, Mrs. Agnes Steinhardt, he is survived by a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edna Pike; three grandsons, Glenwood, Loyde and Gerald Pike; two brothers, D. Scott Pike of Dewitt, and William J. Pike of Newaygo; a sister, Mrs. Agnes "Fair" of Knoxville, Tenn., two great grandchildren and many other relatives and friends. The funeral was held at the Baptist church in Dewitt Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and he was laid to rest in Dewitt cemetery beside his wife. Rev. Northrup of St. Johns spoke comforting words to the sorrowing friends and Mr. and Mrs. Marc Cutler sang, "When I Have Crossed the Bar," and "Jesus Remembers When the World Forgets." Miss Rhoda Bell Reynolds acted as pianist. He was borne to his last resting place amid a profusion of flowers by Glenwood and Gerald Pike, Donald, Neil and Vernon Cutler and Hugh Bond.

DEATH OF GEO. S. PIKE

George S. Pike was born in Olive township, Clinton county, December 7, 1877. He was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Pike. He passed away July 15, 1915, on the farm where he had lived all his life, with exception of four and a half years. He taught school several years and was a successful teacher. He was united in marriage to Miss. Edna Randall of Riley, December 13, 1905. Three children were born to them.

Nearly five years ago his health began to fail. All that medical skill, loving hands and willing hearts could do was done but the hand of the destroyer could not be stayed. He was a great sufferer, but bore his suffering with patience.

He was an exemplary young man, loved and respected by all with whom he came in touch.

He was a member of the F. and A. M. lodge at DeWitt.

He is survived by his widow, three little sons, Glenwood, Lloyd and Gerald, his father M. F. Pike of Olive, one sister, Mrs. Roy Millan of DeWitt, besides many other relatives and a host of friends. He often expressed the wish that he might be spared for the sake of his little sons, but if it was for him to go, all was well.

The funeral was held at his late home last Saturday, July 17th, under the auspices of the Masonic lodge.

The casket was covered and surrounded with beautiful flowers which testified the respect in which he was held. Interment was in DeWitt cemetery.

Relatives from away to attend the funeral were Wm. Pike of Newaygo and son Walter Pike of Grand Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rhodes of Lansing.

Card of Thanks

We extend our heart-felt thanks to all who have shown so much kindness and sympathy during the illness, death and burial of our loved one, also for beautiful flowers- Mrs. Edna Pike, M. F. Pike, Mrs. Roy Millan.

MRS. EDNA PIKE BURIED FEB. 20

Well Known Dewitt Woman,
Aged 54, Succumbs to Short Illness <sup>1936</sup>

East Dewitt—Edna Amina Randall, daughter of William and Ida Randall, was born in Riley township Aug. 23, 1881.

She lived at the home of her grandparents, the late Amori E. Cook and wife, attending the Simmons school and then studied to become a teacher in the St. Johns school and at the Ferris Institute in Big Rapids. After teaching several years, she was united in marriage to George S. Pike, Dec. 13, 1905.

Three sons were born to them, Millard Glenwood, Loyde Eugene, and Gerald Simmons.

Mr. Pike passed away July 15, 1915, after four years' of patient suffering from arthritis, during which time Mrs. Pike tenderly cared for him. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Pike remained on the farm with her father-in-law, the late Millard F. Pike, until her sons grew to manhood.

In 1929 they moved to Dewitt where she had since resided. Monday ~~evening~~ at 8:30 o'clock, after two weeks of intense suffering from complications resulting from flu, Edna quietly fell asleep.

Besides the sons, Glenwood of Riley, Loyde of Los Angeles, Calif., and Gerald of Dewitt, Mrs. Pike is survived by a sister, Mrs. Maud Cutler of Riley, a half-brother, Leroy Randall of Petoskey, northern Michigan, two grandchildren, Joan and Richard Pike, and an aunt, Mrs. Estella Dills of Dewitt and many other relatives and friends. Although she was not permitted to live the allotted time, yet our lives are measured not in years but in deeds and of her it can truly be said, "life's work well done, life's race well run, and now comes rest, sweet rest."

Funeral services were held at the Community church Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Toy of Lansing officiated. Music was furnished by Mrs. Merle Walker. The many beautiful floral tributes bore mute testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Interment was made in Dewitt cemetery by the side of her husband.

DE WITT

Obituary.

Viola H. Cook was born in Riley, Clinton county, Mich., April 28, 1858.

She was united in marriage to D. S. Pike also of Riley, May 11th, 1878.

They began to keep house in Riley and lived there several years. They then went to Lansing and stayed one year. Six years ago they purchased a home in DeWitt village and have lived there ever since. Mrs. Pike was the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cook of Riley. Mrs. Cook, her mother, passed away nearly four years ago.

Mrs. Pike is survived by her husband her aged father, two sisters, Mrs. Jerome Dills, of DeWitt and Mrs. Ida Randall of Riley; two nieces, Mrs. Geo Pike of Olive and Mrs. Marc Cutler of Riley besides a large circle of other relatives and friends.

She was always ready to help in sickness and where help was needed. She was loved and respected by all. None knew her but to love her. It is not the tear at the moment, shed when the cold turf has just been laid over her that can tell how beloved is the spirit that fled or how deep in our hearts we deplore her, 'tis the tear through many long days wept through a life by her alas all shaded, 'tis the sad remembrance fondly kept when all other griefs have faded.

She was a member of no church but she believed in the universal salvation of all. That somewhere and some time the whole human family would be united in perfect holiness and happiness. She was a member of the D. of R., Clinton County Pomona Grange, Clinton County Pioneer Society, also of South Riley Grange. She and Mr. Pike were the last surviving charter members. She expressed herself many times as not afraid to die, but she wanted to live for her husband's sake, as she knew how lonely and desolate the world would be to him without her. While our hearts beat in sympathy with the bereaved friends, we would bid them weep not as one without hope. Think of the joyous meeting with those gone on before. Mrs. Pike has been in poor health many months. Everything that loving hearts and willing hands could do was done but the destroying hand of death could not be stayed. She quietly and peacefully passed away Friday night May 29, 1914.

The funeral was held at her late home Monday afternoon, Rev. F. C. Alldinger of Lansing officiating. Interment in DeWitt cemetery. The D. of R. attended the funeral in a body. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful. Friends from away were Wm. Pipe of Newaygo, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Millan, Mrs. Almeda Brock and daughter of Lansing.

OLIVE.

Died at the home of her uncle, Millard Pike, in Olive, December 3, 1900, Leonora Pauline Pike, aged 22 years, 10 months and 25 days. She was born in Newago, Michigan, January 8, 1878. She graduated in the Newago High school when 18 years old. She taught two years in Newago county, then spent the winter of 1898 in Knoxville, Tennessee, with her aunt, Mrs. Fair, then came to Clinton county and taught the Brown school one term. The following July she was taken sick with peritonitis and her life was dispared of several weeks. She returned to her home in Newago in August. She came back to Clinton county and taught the Brown school the winter and spring term, then attended the Ferris Institute at Big Rapids. She began teaching school again in the Bogus settlement in September. Wednesday evening, November 28, she came to visit her uncle's family and was taken sick with her former trouble the same night. She was a great sufferer until relieved by death. She was a bright merry hearted girl, loved by all who knew her. She realized that death was near and left many loving messages for her heart broken parents who failed to reach her bedside before she died. Every effort was put forth by loving friends to stay the hand of the grim destroyer but all in vain. She leaves a father, mother, sister and brother and a host of other friends to mourn her loss. But parents and friends look up and think of her as not dead but gone before.

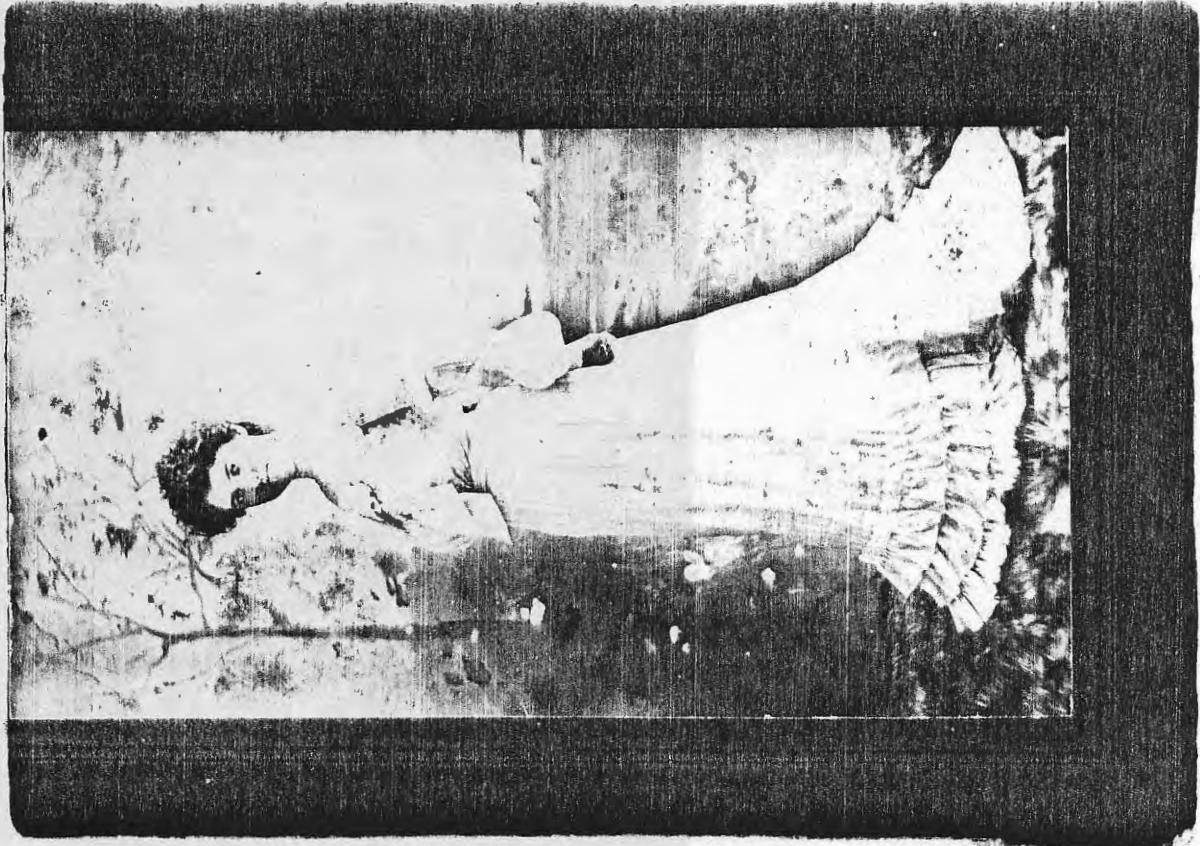

Death, thou art but another birth
Freeing the spirit from the clouds of earth.

Shed not for her the bitter tear
Nor give the heart to vain regret,
Tis but the casket that lies here,
The gone that filled it sparkles yet.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Glenwood Pike At Dewitt Sunday

Dewitt—Sayde Mae Pike, daughter of Frank and Mary Smalley was born in Eagle, Michigan, August 13, 1906 and resided in this vicinity nearly all her life, except a few years spent in Ovid and Owosso. Sayde graduated from Dewitt high school with the class of 1923, and from the L. B. U. in 1924 and worked in the office of Jewel Manufacturing Company until Dec. 1927.

She was united in marriage to Glennwood Pike, February 19, 1927. They resided on a farm in Olive township until December when they moved to Dewitt village. To this union was born a daughter, Deloris Lavaun, who passed away April 7, 1928. Sayde was seriously ill at Sparrow hospital for nearly three weeks and Tuesday, April 24 she was brought to her home in Dewitt where she passed away just at dawn Friday, April 27, aged 21 years and 8 months.

She leaves to mourn her passing the husband, Glennwood Pike, her father and mother, one brother, Bert, three sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Purdy of Flint, Leone and Eleanor at home, two nephews and one niece, besides a host of relatives and friends who will miss her cheerful smile.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. G. S. Northrup at the home in Dewitt Sunday p. m. The following verses by her aunt, Mrs. VanDyke, seem a great consolation at this time.

Darling Sayde, you have left us,
Gone to your eternal home;
God knew when your tasks were over,
And he<sup>l</sup> gathered in his own.

And he'll guide you o'er the river,
Safely to the other shore;
There to find your loved ones
waiting
And dwell with them ever more.

It is hard to lose our Sayde,
Hard to see her pass away;
But we know the time is coming,
When we'll meet again someday.

And we know she will be waiting
In that land so bright and fair;
And we'll see her smile of welcome
When it's time to meet her there.

"Tis the road we all must travel,
"Tis a part of God's great plan;
When the pearly gates are opened,
Then we all will understand.

--Adv.
