

110 South Bridge Street     Clinton House site

Built by Captain David Scott in 1841-1842 the Clinton House stood here until it was destroyed by fire in 1930. Later a Union 76 gas station occupied this location. Today it is a parking lot.

Designated DeWitt Historical site.

Early 1900's

2007

2020

103 South Bridge Street

Most of what is currently 103 was actually facing East Main St. early on as Bridge was a secondary street at the time. When the old building was torn down it was replaced with a single-story Dalman's Hardware store facing Bridge Street. Today it has been subdivided and is occupied by Santorini Salon and Bikeworks.

c1920

2020

107 South Bridge Street

In the early 1900's this was Linn Hardware. It has had many other occupants including DeWitt Drugs and Sportsman's Venture. Today it is Bridge Street Social.

1920's

1978

2020

113 South Bridge Street

Photos from the early 1900's show a single-story building on this site. By the 1950's it had been replaced by the cement block building with a flat roof. By 1978 it was the DeWitt Pharmacy and had the pitched roof it still has today. It was Sam's Kitchen and today it is the DeWitt Chamber of Commerce and Bridge Street Real Estate.

Early 1900's

1978

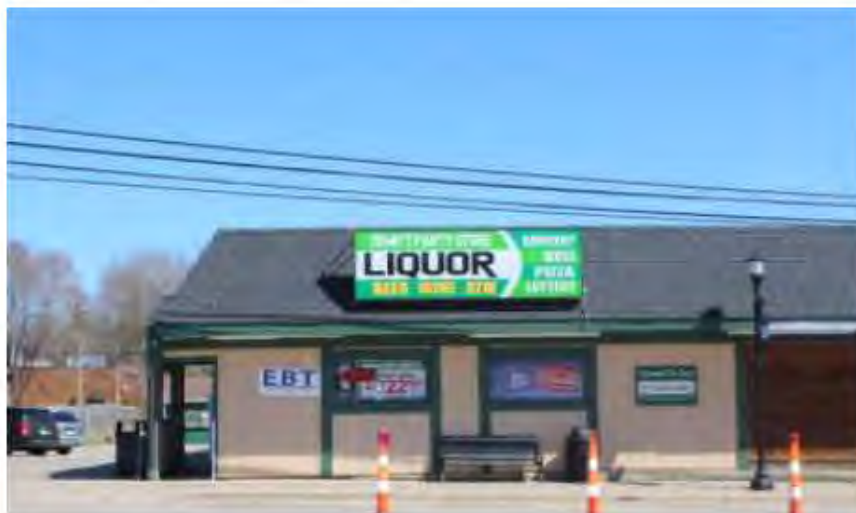

2020

117-127 South Bridge Street

In the space between 113 and 129 used to stand two building. This first was at one time Frank Rouse Meat Market and later a grocery. To the south of it was the DeWitt fire station. It is believed they were both demolished in the 1950's. The DeWitt Party Store is located where the old fire station once stood as it is an addition to 129 S. Bridge.

c1950

2020

118-128 South Bridge Street

A DeWitt fire station and city offices were built here in 1956. Later it was used by other businesses including a laundromat and computer center. The portion of 128 S. Bridge facing Washington St. was a body shop. It was torn down and replaced by the new DeWitt Pharmacy building.

1978

2007

2020

129 South Bridge Street

This building was originally occupied by Griswold Ford. After the dealership moved out it was a grocery store and later a restaurant.

c1910

c1920's

1978

2020

203 & 209 South Bridge Street Halterman-Newman House

This colonial revival style house was built in 1908 for Peter and Effie Halterman on the location of a hotel Captain David Scott had built here about 1839. Peter and his son Glenn were barbers and used the building at 209 as their barber shop. Designated DeWitt Historical site.

2020

1978

2020

204 South Bridge Street     Cloverdale-Twiss House

The first house on this site was the Moulton Sprague home which burnt in the early 1900's. This large stucco house was built around 1920 for John Coverdale who operated a cheese factory that stood directly south of his house. He was one of DeWitt's first ford dealers. Designated DeWitt historical site.

2007

2020

217 South Bridge Street     First Settlement site

On this site Mark Child built a small saltbox house in the early 1840's. He founded Clinton County's first newspaper, the Clintonian. Child died in the Civil War and the house was then owned by Chauncey Lott. Later it was owned by the Courtland family. It was torn down and replaced by the Water View Condominiums. Designated DeWitt Historical site.

1978

2020

South Bridge Street Bridge

early 1900's
looking east from bridge
Interurban trestle in background

early 1900's looking west from Interurban trestle

2020 looking east from bridge

South Bridge Street – Riverside Park

What is now Riverside Park was at one time part of New Albany, a settlement on the southside of the Looking Glass River. An embankment was built here to cross the river on a trestle for the Interurban, some of which still remains. This was also the location of the DeWitt High School football field until the 1960's. The embankment is a designated DeWitt Historical site.

1978

c1950 DeWitt High School football field

2020

304 South Bridge Street

1978

2020

502 South Bridge Street     Baker-Sibley-Reed House

This frame house was built in the 1850's for Joab and Oliva Baker. Joab was on of the first attorneys in Clinton County. Olivia was the daughter of Clinton County's first probate judge Hiram Stowell. The house was owned by Levi and Mable Sibley from the early 1900's until the 1970's. Designated DeWitt historical site.

1978

2020

607 South Bridge Street     Adams-Gillett-Durfee House

This small saltbox house was built in the late 1840's for Joseph Adams an early surveyor. It was one of the first built in New Albany. For many years it was known as the Gillett house and later the Durfee house. Designated DeWitt Historical site.

2020

Northwest Corner of Bridge and Webb

unknown date of this early New Albany home

2020