

'59

FOREWORD

Another year has passed, leaving behind it thoughts of lasting friendships and happy experiences.

On behalf of the '59 class, the yearbook staff has endeavored to place between the covers of this book a record of another school year, complete with all its memories. We hope that we have reached our goal by compiling a book that will be a lasting enjoyment, both now and in the years to come.

